HAS HIS THIGH BONE

Kansas State Historical Society

Claims a Relic.

A NOTORIOUS GUERRILLA

W. C. Quantrell Led the Massacre at Lawrence.

Lawrence, Kan., Nov. 27.—The Kansas

State Historical society has what is asserted to be the thigh bone of W. C.

Quantrell, the notorious guerrilla leader, who led the massacre at Lawrence in 1852. They were left with the late F. G.

Adams, secretary of the society, in 1888, and have been preserved in secrecy until now the death of Quantrell's mother permits the society to register them and put them on exhibition. They are presented to the society by W. W. Scott of Canal

Dover, O., with the consent of Mrs. Quantrell, on condition that they should not be exhibited until after her death. Miss

Zu Adams, a daughter of Judge Adams, who has been employed by the society since its beginning, says that in 1888 Mr.

Scott appeared at her father's office with the bone. He said that he and Mrs.

Quantrell and two other men were with Quantrell when he was killed went to the grave and exhumed the body.

The grave was identified by the two men. One of the men was with Quantrell at Lawrence and his later raids elsewhere. The body had been buried nearly twenty-five years and there was nothing left of it but the skeleton. Even the ligaments were decayed and the skeleton lay in fragments.

The skull and the large bones were taken away, and upon Mr. Scott's suggestion the thigh bones were given to the Kansas Historical society. The bones are about fourteen inches long and were the bones of a very small man.

FOR NATIONAL COMMITTEEMAN.

Claude Duval of Hutchinson Would Succeed J. G. Johnson.

Hutchinson, Kan., Nov. 27.—Claude Duval, of this city may be a candidate for member of the Democratic national committee from Kansas. A boom has been started for him by some of his friends in the central and western parts of the state. J. G. Johnson, of Peabody, who is a candidate for re-election. John H.

Atwood, of Leavenworth, also has been mentioned as a probable candidate.

Claude Duval was the Democratic nominee for congress against Chester Long in the Seventh district in 1902. Last year he was the Democratic candidate for Secretary of state.

DRESS CAUGHT FIRE.

Child Playing With Leaves is Burned to Death.

Winfield, Kan., Nov. 27.—May Long, age

4 years, daughter of W. G. Long, a blacksmith, was burned to death yesterday afternoon. She had made a bonfire of autumn leaves and was carrying an armful, intending to throw them into the flames, when her dress caught fire. In an instant her entire body was enveloped in flames and she ran screaming toward the house.

Although assistance was promptly rendered, she had been frightfully burned about the body and her death resulted three hours later. The accident occurred about 4 o'clock in the afternoon in the front yard of the Long home.

JURY DOESN'T AGREE.

Coffett Trial Ends Again Without Result.

Winfield, Kan., Nov. 27.—At 1:30 this afternoon the jury in the Coffett case came in and reported that they could not agree.

They are said to have stood eight for acquittal and four for conviction.

Coffett received the result with evident satisfaction. The disagreement was generally expected.

This was the fourth trial of the case, and it is estimated that the cost to the county will be in the neighborhood of $50,000 for the four trials. Coffett was accused of killing Santa Fe Detective

Montgomery.

To cure a Cold on the Lungs, and to prevent pneumonia, take Pilo's Cure for Consumption.

GIRL COMMITS SUICIDE.

Kept After School and Then Rebuked at Home.

Ottawa, Kan., Nov. 27.—Because she had been kept in after school and because when she showed her indignation over the matter upon her return home her mother rebuked her for her conduct, Tena

Rose, aged 15 years, committed suicide at her home southeast of Ottawa yesterday evening, by taking strychnine. The tragedy occurred at the home of James Rose, a well known farmer of the old poor farm neighborhood, about four miles southeast of town.

Tena, a spirited girl, had been kept in at school for a short time yesterday evening and had shown her resentment in various ways to her school mates on
